

Kid-Friendly Worksheet

I really want a cell phone

You should do this worksheet with a trusted adult like your parent/caregiver or friend, especially if they are the one that you need to talk to about getting a cell phone.

Answer the following questions with a trusted adult:

What are some examples of you being responsible for something and towards others?

Why do you think you NEED a cell phone?
Be specific.

What kind of agreement are you willing to make with me/others about your cell phone? (Passwords, Apps, Hours of Use, Rules, Safety, Privacy?)

Circle which action you would take if this happened to YOU:

You get a text from a number you DO know:

Hi, do you know what the social studies assignment is?

IGNORE

DELETE

RESPOND

TELL AN ADULT

You get a text from a number you DON'T know:

Hey! I think you are cute!

IGNORE

DELETE

RESPOND

TELL AN ADULT

You get a text from a number you DO know:

Hi, what are the answers to our homework assignment?

IGNORE

DELETE

RESPOND

TELL AN ADULT

You get a text from a number you DON'T know:

Did you hear what _____ did to _____ at school?

IGNORE

DELETE

RESPOND

TELL AN ADULT

What would you do if: An embarrassing photo of you is shared on a friend's social media page?

IGNORE

DELETE

RESPOND

TELL AN ADULT

What would you do if: People started talking about that photo and the comments are really hurtful?

IGNORE

DELETE

RESPOND

TELL AN ADULT

What would you do if: Someone asked you to send an inappropriate photo of you?

IGNORE

DELETE

RESPOND

TELL AN ADULT

What would you do if: Someone sent you an inappropriate photo of them?

IGNORE

DELETE

RESPOND

TELL AN ADULT

Great work! Answering these questions does not mean you will be granted a phone; the decision is ultimately for your parent/caregiver to decide.

Great work starting the conversation!